OUR OOTON FAMILY

About three years ago, my son, Nathan, and I became interested in searching for our roots on the Ooton side of our family. We knew very little about the Ootons except that my great-grandmother was Anna Ooton McPhearson Ooton (she was born an Ooton, married John McPhearson, and then after John's death, she married Will Ooton). We started by going to the courthouse and getting a death certificate for Anna. About the same time, there was an article in the Anderson newspaper about an Ooton Cemetery being restored and we wondered if there was a connection.

The cemetery was about 1 1/4 miles east and 1/2 mile south of our home. I have lived in this neighborhood since 1960, but had never heard of this cemetery. However, we did know the family that had deeded the land to the county. When I talked with them by phone, they said to come over and look at what information they had. After putting all the information together, we did find a connection. The land was originally owned by Jordan Ooton, my great-great-great grandfather. We then started researching the past and the present.

We hope you enjoy this information as much as we have enjoyed finding it. Nathan and I are not professionals; just two people who became interested in our family and want to share our findings with everyone who is interested. A person never knows what tomorrow may bring and we don't want this information to be lost again. No, it is not complete, but it is as complete and accurate as we can do at this time, because our families today are growing. Technology will help in finding more roots and we hope we will be able to discover more information. Maybe this book will give you an idea of whence the family came. For us, this all started when we went

Highland seniors restore historical legacy of family

BY JOY BUBENZER

Highland High School

ANDERSON — By volunteering their time to a community project, four Highland seniors learned firsthand about Madison County's pioneer history and helped restore a family's legacy.

Bubenzer

Chad Cook, Kyle Grant, Kevin Baker and Jennifer West helped restore a local family's graveyard on Saturday, Dec.

3.

These seniors worked with James Brizendine, Myron and Frances Folsom, Robert Haines, and chairman of the Madison County Cemetery Commission, John Brundage at the Ooton Cemetery. Ooton Cemetery is located on the west side of road 200 West in Lafayette Township.

The unrestored cemetery is located on property purchased by James Brizendine's sister and her husband. When the Folsoms found a base of stone on their property, they contacted the courthouse officials who then reported this news to the Madison County Cemetery Commission.

This five-member committee is responsible by law for the township trustees' records and the abandoned cemeteries. There are approximately 130 abandoned cemeteries in the county, but not all of these can be taken care of.

When the Cemetery Commission decided to reset the markers and clean the area, Brizendine, a geography and government teacher at Highland High School, asked if any of his honor government students would want to give some time and effort to the project.

Cook, Grant, Baker and West all volunteered to help find the unrecorded graves by using metal rods to probe from two to three feet into the ground.

It is believed that Jordan Ooton bought the land in the year 1835, which is one year prior to Lafayette Township being organized. One of his children, Isaac Ooton, continued to farm the land with his wife Sophia Birkinbine after his father died.

With the help of the four students, the headstones of two daughters and one son of Isaac and Sophia Ooton were uncovered in this family cemetery.

They also discovered the headstone of an 11-year-old girl of John and Elizabeth East and half of another gravestone. These two graves are thought to be those of travelers in wagon trains who needed a place to rest their loved ones.

The children all died at a very young age ranging from one day old to 11 years old. In the last century, it was not uncommon for many children to die of childhood diseases such as diphtheria or putrid sore throat.

"I really learned a lot about Madison County's history and about some of the early settlers. I also learned that the preservation and restoration of cemeteries will help pass down history for years to come. I was very surprised to see that all of the stones we uncovered were children's," said West.

"I thought that it was very interesting that we only found the headstones of young children who died from disease. This proves that medicine in the past was not very effective," said Grant.

"I have learned that not all of the cemeteries are well known and the knowledge of these cemeteries is slim," said Cook.

The students received a letter of gratitude from Madison County Commissioners Raymond Nuce, Stephen Randolph, and Sandra Huntzinger.

THE OOTON CEMETERY

The Ooton Cemetery in Indiana is located in Madison County, Lafayette Township. It is located on the West side of County Road 200 West and just south of County Road 700 North.

Eight headstones have been reset. They are as follows:

Mary E. Daughter of J. & E. East Died Oct. 14, 1859 aged 11yrs 8mo & 1d	David M. son of Isaac & Sophia Ooton died Dec. 16, 1856 1y 1m & 29d	Infant Daughter of Isaac & Sophia Ooton died May 24, 1862 aged 12 d
Infant Daughter of Isaac & Sophia Ooton Died May 27, 1856 Aged 1 d	??? died Mar. 2, 1863 8y & 4m	I. O. (no dates)
Sarah Daughter of John and Isabel Roach Died June 23, 1861 Aged 10y 23d	William son of John & Isabel Roach died Nov. 9, 1857 aged 17d

Three other headstones were found, but they were broken and unreadable.

Lafayette Township, Madison County, Indiana History

“ Prior to the year 1831, this part of Madison County, known as Lafayette Township was a mere steamy wilderness. Its only living creatures were wild animals common to this locality at that time—such as deer, wolves, bears, panthers, wildcats, porcupines, and turkeys. The only white men who had seen the country were the early settlers of the adjoining townships, and probably a few bands of soldiers whose campaign against the Indians had led them through this region. The Indians had left in 1821 and for ten years, the township was entirely uninhabited, except by the native wild animals.”

Beginning in 1831, a few settlers arrived in the township. In 1835 there were two new settlers, Reed Wilson and JORDAN OOTON. In 1836 a petition was circulated to set aside the territory known as Lafayette Township (separate it from Richland Township) and make it into its own township. Among those who signed the petition was the name of JORDAN OOTON.

Listed in the names of the early trustees of the township is that of JORDAN OOTON.

JORDAN OOTON purchased land in Lafayette Township

Section 10	160 acres	on 10-26-1835
Section 11	40 acres	on 01-12-1836

JOHN OOTON (son of Jordan Ooton) is listed as one of the first justices of the peace of Lafayette Township. He was born in Pike County, Kentucky in 1825. In 1834 his family moved to Lawrence County, Indiana and in March 1835, the family came to Lafayette Township, Madison County, Indiana. In 1850 JOHN was elected Constable of Lafayette Township in which capacity he served two years. He was then elected Justice of the Peace and served continuously in that office until 1886. During that time he joined 149 couples in marriage, none of whom sought a divorce in the courts of Madison County. JOHN and his wife were members of the Christian Church and were Democrats in politics. He was of the opinion that the world would be a better place if not governed so much. He was a typical settler of the times and was widely respected. JOHN is buried in the Whetstone Cemetery south of Anderson in Madison County IN.

RUIN!! CYCLONE MOWS A PATH OF DEATH AND DESTRUCTION
Terrible Work of the Demon of the Storm - Floods Unprecedented-- More Cyclones Prophesied
Thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed in a few moments

No sooner had the sad news of the terrible loss of life and property in Elwood City come to us, than the devastating cyclone struck our own community and left death and desolation in its track. The people of Frankton looked on with appalling fear this Wednesday evening when they saw the terrific commotion that was going on in the elements. Fortunately the cyclone did not strike the town though nearly succeeding in the partial unroofing of C. Quick's barn, on the hill north of town.....

"Isaac Ooten's - House was unroofed and the stable completely destroyed , leaving one horse standing in the stall unhurt."

MORE TIDBITS

A neighbor of David Deck said she went over there one time and the Decks had a big log in through the screen door and into the fireplace. As they needed more wood for the fire, they pushed the log in farther.

All three of Levi Ooton's daughters ended up in Linn County Kansas at one time or another.

Jordan Ooton Jr is buried in Linn County Kansas.

Anna Ooton and her children returned to Indiana in a covered wagon.

Neither Mary Jane Ooton nor her daughter Martha Deck had headstones at the Elwood City Cemetery. Nathan Allen bought a small one for each of them. We do not know where Levi Ooton is buried. We believe there is a good possibility he may be in the Ooton Cemetery along with his parents, Jordan and Dorcas, in unmarked graves with no burial records.

TIDBITS GATHERED ALONG THE WAY

When Eleanor Coleman was visiting us, we were trying to find where her Grandpa and Grandma Deck had lived. It was around Frankton near Pipe Creek, but she didn't know exactly where. On the first road we took, I mentioned that there was an artesian well near the road. Eleanor replied—"See this scar on my arm? I got that on the fence when we went to fill up water barrels with Grandpa Deck." Just down the road we found where the house used to be and found the old schoolhouse.

Treva Startzman remembered visiting George and Lucy McPhearson.

Friday night was hamburger and french fries night at John and Catherine Humerickhouse's home. Monday was beans and cornbread night.

Jerd McPhearson met his wife Mary on a boat ride. She was with another guy and Jerd pushed him off the boat.

Charles McPhearson saw a girl herding ducks and said he was going to marry her. He did.

Alden Williamson drowned in the Tug River that runs between Kentucky and West Virginia.

Lyman Ooton said when the first relatives came to Indiana they slept in hollow trees.

When the doctor told George Gifford to get out of the bad weather in Indiana, his family moved to California.

After living in Kansas, Martha Deck returned to and died in Indiana.

Annie and Alonzo Fowler wanted to go out west. They got to the Mississippi River and turned around.

Dorothy Davidson remembered milking cows at Clarence McPhearson's house.

EXCERPTS FROM LETTERS

Letter from Effie Carter in Chesterton IN to Mary Thompson in Alexandria IN—July 1971. Effie was the granddaughter of Nancy Ann Ooton and Nicholas Miller. Mary Thompson was the granddaughter of Elizabeth Ooton and William Hardcastle.

....My Grandfather Nicholas Lynville Miller was born in a covered wagon down on Flat Rock River. His father Pleasant L. Miller made his way from either Virginia or N. Carolina into Kentucky and then northward into Indiana—Switzerland County and records there show he owned property and a little settlement named “Pleasant” was named for him—as he was the first of a few families to settle there. Then after a time. they went north and settled for a short time, and named the stop “Pleasant View”....

....As I remember the story, he was heading north because friends and relatives from his original starting place had written back of all the “wonders” of the great Indiana wilderness. After Pleasant stopped at a settlement on the banks of White River in the village of Indianapolis very briefly (it was swampy and smelly) he then headed on to their final stopping place up somewhere near Frankton or there about because friends were there....

....I can remember my mother talking about Uncles Levi and Isaac Ooton. One of the stories was that Uncle Levi drank too much and fell in the snowstorm one bad night and froze one of his legs which had to be taken off. She said the kids tried to walk like he did with his wooden leg....

....The first Elwood reunion of the Miller Ooton families was in Aug. 1922 . I started a history of the families and kept it for several years and then someone else took the book....Hello to Lyman.....

Note: There was a picture of the Miller/Ooton reunion at one time—people were known to have a copy but all copies must have been printed with disappearing ink, because nobody can find one now.

Martinsville IN—R.R.3 July 3, 1928

Dear cousins and all—

Henry has gone to bed but we been talking how far we are from where we was last year—June has been cool and lots of rain, but she sure has made it up today. Been awful hot and now we may have a storm, lightning in northwest. I wish I was there this summer again, but Henry and Lee “Pearls man” are tied up with their gold fish. They have good prospects, but it’s like everything else—bugs and such to eat them. We sure wonder if you saved all, your fruit crop this year. We said cherries are ripe and gone I guess. We don’t forget we saw a real rodeo there for the 4th of July and there isn’t anything doing around here anywhere. Pearl’s girl and her man come down from Elwood this afternoon. I expected Clarence and Lellie too but they got company. Charley and Lottie still run a second hand store in one side of our building yet. We go up home every two weeks, collect a little (sometimes). George and Lucy’s girl lives close there. She has 3 children. They say John and Ethel are at Elwood for the fourth. Lonnie Fowler is still in the penal farm. And their 19 yr-old boy died there. About two weeks ago Anna May, a man and her 4 year old boy was in a wreck hurt them all. Annie just got out of hospital but boy is still there, Annie has broken legs. I can see you busy as ever. How are your headaches? Annie and Jim working hard too I’ll bet. Will there be fruit on Walter’s place this year, and did Joe’s leg get all right where he was hurt. Is he healthier? Henry isn’t much account, he says but better than last year. Is Cal straightened up yet over his wreck. The Ooton reunion will be the second Sunday in August. After Elmer Carrol’s wife died he went to Wisconsin. So Lymon’s suppose to be secretary. I don’t know whether he will send out cards or not. So you all better come. We are batching down here in two rooms. But we have got the finest garden of everything. Our first in 6 or 7 year! We live in a valley called Jordan, big hills all around us. There is going to be lots of wild blackberries soon. But oh you chiggers and ticks too. Annie when you get time answer this and your ears surely burn for we are always talking about some of you.

Your Cousins - Grace and Henry

Our new address here is – Martinsville, Indiana R.R. 3

We will be here until October.

Well Calvin and all we are not well. I have not been hardly able to go ever since I had the flu and I got a letter from Lottie Granger telling me that Elmer had fell down on his same hip and he was so bad they took him to the hospital and he is to be operated on today at 10 o'clock. I am so nervous it makes me sick. Oh I hope he gets over it. She didn't say if he broke any of his bones or not. She said he was awful bad so I thought I would let you know about it. I will write every day if I hear from him. I'd go see him but I'm not able to go. So answer soon. From Mother to Calvin and family How are you Annie. I seen Iley yesterday and he said your mother was awful poorly yet but she was so she could be up and around,

Dear nephew This leaves us well at present. Having awful cold weather here. Say I went to Anderson Monday and the deed and drafts was sent before I got there. The deed was sent to Martha first at Osawatomie State Bank and then the Bank was informed to send it to Bank of Amoret MO. Their drafts is sent to Elmer and Jessie and then it will come back and I will send it to you. I expect you will get it sometime next week. Thought I would write and tell you later. Some time to fix things. Yours Elmer Webb I will write to you the day I send it so you will know.

Letter from Elizabeth Thompson in Pleasanton KS to her son Calvin Owens

Pleasanton Kans Jan 20—1920

Well Calvin & Anna & boys I write to you again to let you know we are all well now as can be. All but Mrs. Martin and she is little better. She has been sick ever since the 3 day of November and she don't sit and talk and they have to keep didys on her. And you know what a time I git of it and Jessie has bin sick for a week with a cold. He shucked shock corn in a mist of rain and he had to coff all the time and the man that he was working for bring him home in a car. He coffed so hard he spit blood for over a week But he is at work agin for the same man out in the country. He gets 2 dollars a day and his board. He dried own food he give 7 cents and a half a pound for it and he got 3 bushels of potatoes and 50 pounds of shugar for $3 dollars and a half and got Ernest a pair of shoes. They cost $5 dollars for I went with him to get them and he had to pay Bill Carlette $5 dollars for work he don for them. When they had the flue and they had to pay French 5 dollars for Purls silk skirt and he had to git him a pair of over halls and waist. Tha cost $6 dollars so you see that he is not fooled his money away. He is going to sende you sum just as soon as he can git it. I am a going to rite to Elmer and git that 5 dollars and send it to you and I send you $10 in this letter to pay you far that Hay and oats and for -----you got for me I don't now just what it all cam to for I lost the account of it and you no how much it is and you can pay the lodge dues out of the ten dollars and I try and send you som moe money next week. It takes nearly every sente I git to live on and I had to pay my taxes and I got a ton of hay and it costs 13 dollars and I got 20 bushels of corn. It cost 10 dollars and the gass bill is 4 dollars a month. I git to burn it all night and the lodge dues to pay. So you see I not got nothing ahead for Jess has not pay me a sente yet naer he has not paid me nothing for taken care of the children. It looks like he owed nearly every body out here-----after him just as soon as he comes in of a Saturday evening. I hope he soon gits them all paid up so he can pay you all he owes you. I wait for my money till he pays you. I am sorry to hear about Jims bad luck. It looks like they could find his hors and buggy for him. Yes I herde from John and Girty a New Years day. John lives in Paola and Girty lives in Osawatomie and Willy lives in Oklahoma. I don't know his address. Lela left Willy and then went back to him again. Ed lives where he did live at when you was there. Ed killed a beef and gave John a quarter of it. I am out of paper and I write more soon. From Mother to Calvin and Anna & boys ancer soon goodbye to all

THE INDIAN GRANDMOTHER

There has been a story handed down in the family for several generations about an Indian grandmother somewhere back along the line. No one knows much about her, only what they have been told. During our research we have asked many people about what they have heard and have searched many records for a trace of the Indian. We have not found anything written down. However, we have found many verbal references to an Indian grandmother from the descendents of the daughters of Levi and Mary Jane Miller Ooton. Some are listed below.

My grandfather, Charles McPhearson, said the Indian's name was Patsy.

My brother, Tom Pruitt, had the name Patsy listed on a family tree he made for school.

Charlotte Hobbs said the Indian was her great-great grandmother and stood 6 feet tall in her stocking feet.

John Turner said he remembered that Aunt Rose was 1/16 Indian.

Ruth Skillman said on a tape that it was her great-great-grandmother.

Wanita Warman said the white man who married the Indian was her great-great grandfather.

Betty McPhearson said she figured up one time that her children are 1/32 Indian Dorothy Davidson said that Martha Deck, her grandmother, was 1/4 Indian.

Pearl Gifford had a picture of an Indian that she said was her mom's grandmother.

Lois Cook said they had always heard there was an Indian and her brothers and uncles had Indian characteristics.

Geri Guzman said her grandfather and father had fingernails that were different than a white man's nails.

No one on the McPhearson side of the family who doesn't have Ooton blood in them has heard the story of the Indian.

There is no death certificate for Mary Jane Miller Ooton when there should have been one. Perhaps they didn't file them for people of mixed race. We found another family of white/Indian descent and there was no death certificate for their Indian grandmother. Both Mary Jane and the other Indian died in Elwood IN around the same time period.

We found a John Miller who owned land in the same section as the Ootons in Lafayette Township, but no name was listed for a wife. On the other hand, names of wives were given for other landowners in the same area. This could be Patsy's husband since Indians were not legally permitted to own land.

CONCLUSION—We believe that the Indian grandmother was named Patsy and was the mother of Mary Jane Miller Ooton. Mary Jane is in the 4-generation picture with Anna McPhearson Ooton, Jerd (Jordan Francis) McPhearson, and Irene McPhearson Lanning. Mary Jane (1/2 Indian) has what appears to be a medicine bag hanging around her neck. She has the look of an Indian. We believe one reason that no one has known for sure where the Indian fits into the family is that years ago, there was a Miller-Ooton reunion at the same time that there was a McPhearson reunion. Since some were related on all sides, we know they visited with each other. Quite possibly, stories were being told, and very easily could have gotten combined and mixed up. Since it was illegal for a white person to marry an Indian, we imagine they covered their tracks as best they could; thus, making it hard to prove anything one way or another.

Since descendants from all three daughters of Mary Jane (Miller) Ooton, wife of Levi Ooton, talk about an Indian grandmother, we believe we have found her on the Ooton/Miller side of the family. We call her Patsy, but only God knows for sure her story and who she was.

CAME HERE IN EARLY DAYS

Pioneer Born Enroute to In-

LONG AND INTERESTING LIFE

Born in Kentucky while enroute to Indiana where her parents came as pioneers to aid in the great fight to conquer what was then almost a complete wilderness. Mrs. Jane Oeten, 85, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Deck, last Saturday evening. Her life was one full of interest and she died with the realization that she had filled her place in the world successfully.

Born During Journey.

In the spring of 1827 her parents left their home in North Carolina, with their few household goods placed in large covered wagons, and began the trip overland to Indiana, a state which was then but thinly settled. The journey was a long one filled with hardships and dangers, but the pioneer woman who worked at the side of her husband was brave and cheerful throughout the ordeal, her one hope being that they might reach their new home before a new life was ushered into the world.

These hopes were not to be realized, however, and when the travelers were almost at the end of their journey, having reached the state of Kentucky, the little girl was born. She was named Mary Jane, and when Indiana was reached, she was brought up amid the strenuous surroundings of the pioneer home.

Leaves Many Decendants.

Her entire life was spent in Indiana, she coming to Elwood about 18 years ago. She made her home with her children and was widely known here. She was a lovable old lady and her death will be deeply mourned.

She is survived by 3 daughters, 18 ren and one v oetaoin shrdlusrdl grandchildren, 43 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

The funeral was held at the West Elwood Baptist church this afternoon, Rev. Albert Jones in charge and interment followed in the city cemetery.

Date of death 05-11-1912

HEAD OF FIFTH GENERATION DEAD

Mrs. Jane Ann Ooton Died at Ripe Old Age of Almost Eighty-five Years.

LIVED HERE TWENTY-FIVE YRS.

Born in Kentucky While Family Moved From North Carolina to Indiana.

At the ripe old age of almost 85 years, Mrs. Mary Jane Ooton died at the home of her daughter Mrs. David Deck in West Elwood Saturday evening at 6 o'clock after having been ill for some time with infirmities caused by her old age and a dropsical affection.

Mrs. Ooton's life history is a most interesting one. She was born in the state of Kentucky while the family was moving from their old home in North Carolina to Indiana where they located. The family was among the early settlers of the state and they endured the hardships of pioneers.

Mrs. Ooton is the head of five generations, she being survived by three daughters, eighteen grand children, forty-three great grand children and one great great grandchild. The three daughters are Mrs. David Deck and Miss Anna Ooton of this city, and Mrs. Elizabeth Tompkins who lives in the state of Washington.

The deceased came to Elwood about eighteen years ago, since which time she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Deck, where the very best of care and kindest attention was given her by her relatives. Twenty-five years ago she became affiliated with the Missionary Baptist church and she continued to be a devout member until the time of her death.

Funeral services were conducted at the West Elwood Baptist church this afternoon. Rev. Albert Jones was in charge and he spoke in a very touching manner of the life of the deceased. Burial was in the city cemetery.

Dear Sister And Brother -

I'm going to write you a few lines this morning to let you know that Granny is dead And buried -

~~she was truly bad sick~~

About a week And died the 11 - was buried the 13 - She was laid away very nicely - a white beaded basket

and she was dressed

all in white, white slippers and white lace

cap - the grand children all shipped in and got her a fine bunch of flowers. their neighbors to the floral design

the broken wheel and the was a few other flowers. She did look so nice. She is at rest now. And don't have to stand for no body says now - they all took it pretty hard - they had her funeral at their church -

Your Ma just called up and said her I was writing to youse. She said to tell you that she thought of letting you know about Henry and then she was so worried she just needed it but said she would like to see you all. She said she felt only tolerable. Aunt Martha and Mary Moody fainted 2 or 3 times. "don't say nothing" but will had to get drunk as usual.

Wint Betts is in Washington they are all there but call - I feel on the train to day. the rest are all well as far as

I know. I'll send you a piece out of the paper. I would like to see them sweet little dears. I'll close my head as soon as possible.
And write soon -
Mrs. Ellen Hayes.

Dear Cousin Walter -

We certainly was glad to get such a nice letter from you - but say! that sure was some accident, tried to kill your poor old Dad - but we are glad you all got off as well as you did - take some money to fix Chucks Car -

I am so dissapointed Sylvia wrote us

~~the~~ ^{you} were going to start home week ago

Sunday and she has never written us -

Another line - I do hope they get home safe. Oh! boy, that cloud burst would of scared me green - for when the ditch came out I thought sure we would drown -

I been threatening to come back for we have had two lightening storms since we got home. Sylvia can tell you about some of Henrys trick driving on muddy roads in Wyoming - And so your Mother took the train and went back to see her folks. Hope she has a good visit - but not much pleasure where there is sickness. (2)

And that mean horse had to hurt poor Joe's foot. I hope it's well now. I got the spirit of St. Loren home with out a scratch. had to hide it from a little Cousin, he might wreck it. Poor Arvelia with 2 on her little hands. one is bad enough. If ever you need a friend it's when you got one of them pests. I suppose the Dr. had to lance her fellows 2 of them. I can't shut my hand tight yet and got it all salved up. And the funny thing. I had 3 stys before we got home. used a new box of that eagle eye salve but fell brain new now. Oh! yes, did Arvelia say you could keep her warm this winter.
speak she did. we got a couple across the street got married this afternoon.
It's just now I and I hear a gun, guess the bunch is after them. I remember you pink boy of paper. Henry the skunk dinner has gone to bed. he still grunts like he did. dizzy to day. We haven't seen a show since we left there. We been down to Martinsville few days to H. Sister Pearl then we moved up where the ③ store was this week. So we been going some. You saw we doing fine in apples. Ill bet Cecil & Virgil will be glad for Sam & Sylvia to get home safe. to bad about her nice basement. I say some mess. And Cecil Clark got a ~~life partner~~ I suppose that watersport town up Mrs Bourgeois place some. It has been so cool that we have had little fire nearly every day. every thing was just like we left it here.

So we got plenty for us in canned goods we send out of store - all our old customers wants us to start stone again - but don't think we will take you down to grind stone - did you or Charley get hurt or bruised in the wreck -

Well I guess I will stop for this time and write you again when you get time and in the winter - Did Mustards ever go to Illinois -

ANOTHER PIONEER.

Answers the Summons From the Other Side.

Another of the aged residents of Elwood has passed to the world beyond. At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Rittenhouse, at 2028 North F street, Saturday evening, Mrs. Martha McPhearson, widow of the late Luke McPhearson, who died two years ago, passed away after an illness of several weeks.

She was in the seventy-sixth year, and had been a resident of this community for almost half a century, enjoying the acquaintance and esteem of hundreds of people. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock today and the body was taken to the Cochrane cemetery east of the city for interment.

LUKE M'PHEARSON DIED YESTERDAY EVENING.

Was One of the Oldest Men in Madison County.

At the home of his son-in-law, James Rittenhouse, about eight miles north-east of Elwood, Luke McPhearson died yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and were conducted by Rev Joseph Dinkens of this city. The remains were then laid to rest in the Forrest cemetery.

At the time of his death Mr. McPhearson was just a few weeks over ninety-five years of age, and was one of the oldest, if not indeed the oldest inhabitant of Madison county. He has lived in this neighborhood the greater part of his life and his stories of the country when it was indeed the wild and woolly west, were always full of interest. He was well known throughout this part of the state and hundreds of friends and acquaintances will regret his death.

Date of death 03-26-1900

Newspaper Article about Luke Jim McPhearson

Here is a letter from a 69-year-old man, Luke McPhearson of Elwood, member of the conservation club of Madison County that will interest many fishermen. Here are sentences from the McPhearson letter that tell his story: "Leading authorities say that everybody should have a hobby. As for me I do not care for golf or athletics, but man alive, I sure do love to fish for carp. On May 17, 1939, having heard that the Elkhart River, 107 miles north of my home, was a good fishing place and having two grandsons, Fred McPhearson, age 16, and Bill Cloud, 18, we decided to try our luck. The three days we stayed there, we caught twenty carp and I am enclosing a snapshot taken of me and my catch as I know there are other old timers who enjoy the lowly art of carp fishing. I use nothing but dough balls which I make myself."

DEATH COMES

AT NINETY

Mary Jane Noble Dies at an Advanced Age at Sons Home.

HERE SINCE BEFORE THE WAR

Mary Jane Noble, one of the pioneers of this city since before the war this morning answered the call of the death angel, swelling the already large toll taken from this city within the past twenty-four hours.

Was Ninety Years Old.

The deceased was born in Rush county in January 1826 but moved to this city while still a young woman and has lived here continuously until a short time ago when she left for a visit to the home of her son, Ira Noble, living 9 miles northeast of the city and has never returned.

Remembered the War.

Until the last her memory remained bright and she was one of the most interesting persons in the city to talk with concerning the growth of the city and the experiences of this community during the great struggle of the sixties. She was a life long member of the Methodist church and as long as able was a faithful worker in that congregation.

Thirty-seven Great Grandchildren

She was the mother of five children, four boys, James, John, Ira and Sherman, and one girl, Mrs. Frank. She had twenty-seven grand children and thirty-seven great grandchildren besides a number of other relatives and a host of friends.

Death came this morning at 8:40 o'clock resulting from illness caused by the infirmities of old age. For several days it was apparent that the end was near and death did not come as a surprise to the watchers at the bedside.

Owing to the inability of relatives to arrive immediately, the arrangements for the funeral have not been completed but will be announced later.

A FAMILY TREE IS WORTH TALKING ABOUT IF IT IS MADE OF GOOD TIMBER, AND NOT JUST A BUNCH OF NUTS!!

Thanks to all those who submitted their family information. Thanks to my husband, David, for paying my expenses (especially my phone bill) and for listening to us talk about this all the time. Thanks to my son, Matthew, for designing the cover and searching for graves. Thanks to my son, Nathan, or I should say a GREAT BIG THANKS, for all the time he has spent doing research, typing, and keeping me from getting confused. Without him, I would have quit this project months ago. It has been fun!! My parting words to the family are— Please put names on your pictures!!!!
